

AMISHBOYISH

Amishboyish is a french brand created by two ladies well-known in Paris, Diane de Sérigny & Nadège Winter.

The idea of the brand is to recreate four basics of our modern closet : the t-shirt, the bomber jacket, the teddy and the sweatshirt.

Amishboyish has a distinctive, strong signature: each piece is reversible and can be worn both upside down, with plays of materials and patterns.

The collection is made for girls, but boys like to steal some items when they turn their back, because the brand wants to gather the tomboy in every girl and the love of beautiful women, luxury, fashion that does not leave us.
